

Employee of the year 2006

Highly valued by colleagues

Emma Sugrue who has worked for us for nearly six years has been chosen as our Employee of the Year .

Emma, 25, is personnel and training administrator, dealing with recruitment; staff contracts and the induction of new staff.

According to chief executive, Andy Moore "Emma's warm and friendly personality and her efficiency means she is highly valued by her work colleagues .

I am very pleased at being elected by the staff, Emma remarked. It came as a surprise .

