

part of Devon & Cornwall
Housing group

What if the inspection uncovers any faulty PHA equipment?

The gas engineer has the power to seal off any faulty equipment or even request that gas supplier cuts off the supply to the property.

If the gas engineer identifies any problems with the gas equipment provided by PHA, the Association will organise and pay for a GAS SAFE registered gas engineer to carry out the necessary repair work.

- Up to Repairs
- Next: What are Penwith Housing Association's responsibilities?

©2012 Penwith Housing Association
Built on Cubik

Sign In