

What if the inspection uncovers any faulty tenant-owned equipment?

If the gas engineer identifies any problems with the tenant-owned equipment they will immediately disconnect the equipment to make the situation safe. The association will then inform the tenant in writing that it is their responsibility to organise and pay for a GAS SAFE registered gas engineer to carry out the necessary repair work.

- Up to Repairs
- Next: What are my responsibilities as a tenant?